Among the suthenticated records of the recorded to the suthential to the suthential to the suthential to the suthential country for a short time on the Brantian country for such a merica, he observed the nave using, in the preparation of their cod, a peculiar oil, which, upon examination, he would be proposed to the appearance, taste and flavor of Butter; upon further inquiry, however, he saccretained that it was simply a substance that the natives distilled in a crude and imperfect manner from a rich and invariant plant that grew spontaneously and abundantly in that warm tropical country. A few years ago an eminent French chemist, while on a professional visit to the iropics, made numerous experiments with this remarkable production of nature, and succeeded in extracting a concentrated essence of the piant.
